

Winners of IHC Telecom 2008 Art Awards announced - Friday, September 26, 2008

Judges have commended the artworks in the 2008 IHC Telecom Art awards for their variety, quality and individualism.

- Chris Tilley, from Nelson, won first prize and $5,000 for his painting “The Barn”.
- Second place was Hamiltonian Hone Paekau for his work “Highout and Blackout”. Hone won $2000.
- Two third places were awarded to Sasha Rae from Christchurch and Anne Pamment from Hamilton. Sasha and Anne won $1000 each.

This year's winners (from left to right): Hone Paekau, 2nd place winner; Chris Tilley, 1st place winner; Anne Pamment, 3rd equal; and Sasha Rae, 3rd equal.

The IHC Telecom Art Awards are the major showcase of the talents of people with intellectual disabilities.

They are open to all New Zealanders with an intellectual disability. This year 650 people entered.

See picture below

